WILDLIFE PRESENTATION PLANNED

Hands on learning for children and families

The Monroe County Parks Department will host an informative wildlife presentation by guest biologist Ron Schroder, from the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation, on Friday, November 10, 2000 at the Mendon Ponds Park Nature Center from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Schroder will share his knowledge of local wildlife through colorful slides and hands-on interactive learning materials. The program is open to all ages. Children must be accompanied by an adult.

To register, call the Mendon Ponds Park Nature Center at 334-3780. The fee is $2.00 per person and $6.00 per family.

Mendon Ponds Park Nature Center is located in Mendon Ponds Park at the corner of Clover Street (Route 65) and Pond Road.
